

HEARTWARE ACADEMY

EQUIPPING NEXT GENERATION YOUTH VOLUNTEERS AND LEADERS

Volunteers are key resources for community organisations; effective recruitment, training and management should be the core focus to ensure the organization remains active, viable and strong. Founded on this belief, Heartware Academy encourages youth to learn practical skills necessary for volunteering, and passing their knowledge down to the next generation of youth volunteers in a self sustain cycle.

Heartware Academy features a multi disciplinary network of trainers who are dedicated in developing youth volunteers and leaders, through a various training and knowledge sharing sessions. You will also get an opportunity to mingle with like-minded peers and learn from each other's diverse life experiences.

In time, we envision Heartware Academy to be a regional training hub which individuals from all walks of life convene; working collaboratively towards the ultimate goal of improving volunteering practices and the lives of those we serve.

Join us in raising the standard of volunteerism!

HEARTWARE - CHARACTER AND CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

INSPIRE YOUTH DEVELOPMENT COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS

THINK: A tight-knit community where students are adequately skilled to advocate for causes close to their hearts and homes, and welfare organisations never worry about a lack of volunteers.

That is the vision of the Heartware-Character and Citizenship Education (HW-CCE) Leaders Programme. It develops students into community champions committed to improving the lives of others in meaningful ways. Students are trained to adequately diagnose community issues close to their hearts, and design sustainable projects that alleviate these problems.

This highly experiential programme links secondary schools to surrounding social service organisations to create the authentic service learning experience. A culture of servant leadership is bred, and augmented by a training curriculum focused on character and leadership growth.

From learning journeys and inspirational series, to community projects guided by trained facilitators, find your students excited with opportunities to reach out, engaged in community problem-solving, and empowered with skills to rally and mentor peers in sustainable projects.

WAYS YOU CAN MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE

1. Raising next generation youth volunteer and leaders: Contribute to the writing of new curriculum, development of new training materials and training of next generation of youth volunteers and leaders for community
2. Facilitating ground-up initiatives for community: Mentor youths in designing and executing their community solutions to address real community issues
3. Impart positive values: Share positive values such as, resilience and enterprise, to next generation youth volunteers and leaders

VOLUNTEER ROLES AVAILABLE

1. Volunteer Facilitator (develop training materials, deliver training to student volunteers, mentor student-initiated community projects)

GET INVOLVED IF YOU:

1. Are aged between 17 and 35 years old.
2. Are interested in developing training materials and training youths
